[&]quot;... has really settled into her new class."

Headteacher comments:

We are very pleased with our parents' responses; all have been recorded above.

The outcomes and comments will be shared with staff.

We currently offer five clubs for KS1 and eleven for KS2; three clubs are full. Lincoln City FC also provide after school club but this is chargeable.

We continue to strive to improve communication with parents, particularly by using electronic methods so that messages and letters can be translated.

[&]quot;Overall, a good school. I personally like the Christian values inculcated in the children."

[&]quot;Thanks, all lovely friendly and helpful staff."

[&]quot;I think the school is trying its best and hope it does well with the kids."

[&]quot;I am very pleased. All my kids go to this school - I am very happy with all the staff, and my kids feel safe and looked after. Thank you!"

[&]quot;School is friendly and supports children and parents. Very friendly atmosphere, lots of good teaching."

[&]quot;My children have thrived at BK and go from strength to strength, thanks to the amazing standard of teaching!"

[&]quot;Places in after school clubs are too limited: the popular ones."

[&]quot;It would be great if there were more clubs for KS1; other than that we have no complaints. Any issues have always been dealt with efficiently."

[&]quot;There could be more activities/ clubs, especially for Year 6."

[&]quot;Communication could be improved."
